

Professional Development Opportunities for Registered Nurses

WOULD YOU LIKE TO EXTEND YOUR KNOWLEDGE AND PRACTICE IN INFECTION CONTROL?

Advanced Notification of 2011 courses for INFECTION CONTROL FOR REGISTERED NURSES (GCIM700)

Dates:	Tuesday-Thursday, 15-17 February 2011 Monday-Wednesday, 7-9 November 2011
Time:	8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Venue:	CPIT, Room N106
Cost:	TBC
Contact Person:	Dr Daphne Manderson, ph: 940 8291

Course topics include:

- History and importance of infection control
- Universal/standard precautions
- Creating a safe environment
- Infection control standard (NZS8142)
- Introduction to Health and Disability Sector standards (NZS8134)
- Infection control issues in the acute care setting
- Microbiology and interpretation of laboratory results
- Outbreak management
- Cleaning, disinfection and sterilisation
- Staff health

Speakers include: Dr Rosemary Ikram ,(Med Lab South) Dr David Hammer, (Med Lab South) Alison Carter, Nurse Consultant (Med Lab South), and Infection Control Specialists Jane Barnett (CDHB) and Julian Toop (TPMH).

For further information:

Faculty of Health, Humanities and Science
CPIT School of Nursing and Human Services (Graduate Studies)
Phone: 03 940 8074
Email: mandersond@cpit.ac.nz